A Prayer for America at a time of great violence

Our nation is confronting great violence at home and overseas. Little or no progress has been achieved on these fronts. Next week, I am submitting an essay on what my foundation—Redding Foundation—believes can be done to mitigate the frequency and severity of violence between Kids & Cops. In the meantime, please join us in the following prayer:

‘Dear Lord Jesus,

Please help us to understand the root causes of violence in America between black young men and our law enforcement officers. Help us to define and implement solutions. The violence in our country is profoundly disturbing and we need your loving mercy and forgiveness.

In Christ’s name we pray”.

Pastor's Corner

Dare to be bored this summer!

Note to Self is a podcast that I listen to regularly. The tagline or subtitle of the show is "The tech show about being human" and it explores the many ways technology affects our humanity. Last year they did a series called "Bored and Brilliant." The upshot was that technology, like money, is a great tool but a horrible master. The challenge was to take back the control of our use of technology rather than being a slave to it. "Paying attention to our smartphones through so many of our waking moments means our minds don't spend as much time idling. And that matters! ... [Sandi] Mann's research [of the University of Lancashire of the U.K.] finds that idle minds lead to reflective, often creative. Minds need to wander to reach their full potential." (For more information, go to: <http://www.wnyc.org/story/bored-and-brilliant-boot-camp-manoush-zomorodi>) Here is my summary of the activity of each day of the challenge:

The phone challenge: while moving around, put your phone in your pocket or better yet, a backpack or bag, and make sure you get the only the notifications that matter to you. "Smartphones behave like children. When they want your attention, they want it right now."

The photo challenge: take no pictures. Americans take almost 10 billion photos a month and seem to be remembering less!

The app challenge: delete the app which causes you to waste the most time on your phone. (Hint: it's probably a game!)

The social media challenge: take a break from all of the social media, chatting, or whatever means of digital communication interrupts you all day

Go people watching and see what strikes you; record a voice memo on your phone with your observation(s).

I dare say those of you older than I are scratching your head in confusion and incomprehension and those of you younger than I think I am spouting heresy! It is amazing to me how every generation finds ways to escape reality, often in the guise of "making life better." We become enamored with our own creation and lose sight of the wonders of God's creation and the people who share our lives. Part of the whole point of a vacation or "taking a break" is to step outside of our routine and evaluate if it (the routine or pattern of our daily lives) is serving our deepest values and helping us achieve our goals. We've been so busy following our daily routine that we are probably, accidentally, doing too much of some things and not enough of others, as well as not doing things we should (I feel so much better when I actually exercise, but haven't in x weeks) and doing things we should not be (you fill in this blank). We can only make those evaluations when we are outside of the "new normal." Get out of your routine. Be bold. Be courageous. Dare to be bored, and you just might feel better about your crazy life.

Fr Carl, O.P.

A Message from your Saint Vincent de Paul Conference

We will be hosting a Bundle Weekend July 30-31. We are asking for your small appliances and household items in good working condition. We would also appreciate clothes, especially "business casual" clothes. Your donations will be delivered to the St. Vincent de Paul Store in Oakland.

July 30-31 is also our next fifth Sunday collection. Your financial help is greatly appreciated. We continue to receive several calls a week for food, also rent and utility assistance.

If you would like to learn more about our work, please come to our next meeting, Monday August 1st, 7 pm Norton Hall.

Thanks!

Recycling – You Be the Judge

The Church's recycling program has been in existence for almost one year. Look at the contents of the containers in the Parish and Norton Halls and decide if you think the Parish is following the instructions on the signs.

Quick Review: Berkeley's rules are different from other adjacent cities. Forget what you do outside of Berkeley.

Discarded food and food stained paper (pizza boxes, paper plates & cups, napkins, etc.) go in Compost (Green).

Not all plastics are recyclable – plastic utensils, plastic bags, plastic straws, candy bar and chip wrappers, juice boxes - all go into the Garbage (Black).

Note from George and Mary Jo

SUMMER HELP NEEDED FOR 1ST AND 4TH DINNERS FOR THE POOR AND HOMELESS

Many of our regular volunteers will be away from now thru Labor Day. Please consider helping out. The next Sunday's dinner, would be a good place to start. No experience is needed. We set up/cook from 12 to 1PM, prepare to serve at 2:45 and clean up at 3:30. We especially need volunteers to clean up.

Desserts are always welcome and can be brought to the Parish Hall by 1:30.

In response to the Pastor's Corner this week: Summer time holidays
Yeah!!!

Peace & Social Justice

Social Justice notes for July 10, 2016

Climate Action Network news

Responding to Pope Francis' urgent call to "care for God's creation", several members of our parish have joined the Alameda Interfaith Climate Action Network (AICAN), which is dedicated to building a faith-based response to climate change in Alameda County. Father Kieran was instrumental in forming this group, and was delighted to learn that St Mary Magdalen will continue to be involved now that he has retired.

Pope Francis' call to "A Revolution of Tenderness."

In this election year, Pope Francis has reminded us that we are called by our faith to engage in politics. He has even said that "politics is one of the highest forms of love, because it is in the service of the common good."

A "2016 Pope Francis Election Values Guide" has been released by a coalition of national Catholic organizations, led by Catholics in Alliance for the Common Good. The aim is to inform Catholics about the entire social vision of the Church, so that they will be prepared to vote their conscience this November. The Guide identifies one by one the issues we face today, and relates each one to the life and teachings of Jesus, quoting frequently from Pope Francis' writings and public addresses. It then asks us to consider how each candidate for public office responds to questions about the issue.

It is CACG's hope that every Catholic in the United States will read this thought-provoking document. It can be found at <https://popefrancis16.com> (click on the link which says "Read our full guide here.")
