Pastor's Corner

A Short Explanation of the "Our Father" by St. Thomas Aquinas

By way of brief summary, it should be known that the Lord's Prayer contains all that we ought to desire and all that we ought to avoid. Now, of all desirable things, that must be most desired which is most loved, and that is God.

Therefore, you seek, first of all, the glory of God when you say: "Hallowed be Thy name." You should desire three things from God, and they concern yourself. The first is that you may arrive at eternal life. And you pray for this when you say: "Thy kingdom come."

The second is that you will do the will of God and His justice. You pray for this in the words: "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

The third is that you may have the necessities of life. And thus you pray: "Give us this day our daily bread." Concerning all these things the Lord says: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God," which complies with the second, "and all these things shall be added unto you," (Matt 6:33) as in accord with the third.

We must avoid and flee from all things which are opposed to the good. For, as we have seen, good is above all things to be desired. This good is fourfold. First, there is the glory of God, and no evil is contrary to this: "If thou sin, what shalt thou hurt Him? And if thou do justly, what shall thou give Him?" (Job 35:6-7) Whether it be the evil inasmuch as God punishes it, or whether it be the good in that God rewards it – all redound to His glory.

The second good is eternal life, to which sin is contrary: because eternal life is lost by sin. And so to remove this evil we pray: "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us."

The third good is justice and good works, and temptation is contrary to this, because temptation hinders us from doing good. We pray, therefore, to have this evil taken away in the words: "Lead us not into temptation."

The fourth good is all the necessities of life, and opposed to this are troubles and adversities. And we seek to remove them when we pray: "But deliver us from evil. Amen."

Fr Carl, O.P.

The Parables of the Hidden Treasure and the Pearl

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls.

When he found one of great value, he went away and sold everything he had and bought it.”

Matt 13: 44-46

Trust in the Lord

*“Blessed is the man who makes the Lord his trust,
who does not turn to the proud,
To those who go astray after a lie.”*

Psalm 40: 4

Message from Bishop Michael C. Barber, SJ

Dear brother Priests,

"There is something positive that you and I can do to promote peace: by coming together to pray and give common witness to our desire for peace." In my recent Bishop's Column in The Catholic Voice (June 6¹), I announced that the Diocese of Oakland and the Community of Sant'Egidio are organizing an Interfaith Meeting of Prayer for Peace to take place at the Conference Event Center on September 6, 2016. The Meeting serves as both a celebration of the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy and a continuation of the movement of interfaith prayer that began with Pope John Paul II in Assisi in 1986. On the occasion of the 30th anniversary of that first Meeting, the Spirit of Assisi reaches the West Coast of the United States in the Diocese of Oakland.

Please do all that you can to promote this event: from the pulpit, in parish bulletins, on websites, and through posting and distribution of Save the Date flyers. The event is for everyone; we are all called to be peacemakers. Attached is a Save the Date flyer. Also, here are links to diocesan websites for more information and to r.s.v.p.: www.oakdiocese.org/InterfaithMeeting and www.jubileeofmercy-eb.org/page/interfaith-meeting. If you have additional questions, please contact Jean Evans at JEvans@oakdiocese.org.

The goal of this Interfaith Meeting is to create a community of witnesses who counter the view that religions generate violence and war. The Meeting will embody the message that peace lies at the heart of religion, and that believers are called to be peacemakers and instruments of mercy. The theme is Mercy, the Heart of Peace. The theme focuses on quickening the spiritual dimension of peace in the hearts of the participants as a springboard for works of mercy and peace.

The Program in three "moments":

1. Prayer opportunities at 5:45 – 6:15 p.m.

Prayer in five locations (Jews, Muslims, Christians, Hindus and Buddhists)

Christians use Sant'Egidio "Prayer for Peace."

The evening's first "moment" will attest that God is the primary source of peace.

2. Panel Dialogue on "Mercy: the Heart of Peace" at 6:30 – 7:45 p.m.

Panel of representatives of Christianity, Judaism and Islam in Conference Center

Opening Remarks: Bishop Barber

Introduction – with slides of Spirit of Assisi: Paola Piscitelli (Community of Sant'Egidio)

3 speakers: on "Mercy: the Heart of Peace"; each panelist speaks for 10 mins.

Follow up with Q&A for 30 mins.

3. Procession/Appeal for Peace at 8:00 p.m.

The procession moves onto the plaza stage and concludes with an appeal for peace, signing of pledge, and embrace of peace.

The evening's concluding "moment" will instill hope and stir hearts to make a personal commitment to be more merciful and to seek peace.

Know that I am grateful for your promotion of and participation in this event, which may be a source of healing much needed in our communities.

Fraternally yours in Christ,

Michael C. Barber, SJ
Bishop of Oakland

Recycling – You Be the Judge

The Church's recycling program has been in existence for almost one year. Look at the contents of the containers in the Parish and Norton Halls and decide if you think the Parish is following the instructions on the signs.

Quick Review: Berkeley's rules are different from other adjacent cities. Forget what you do outside of Berkeley.

Discarded food and food stained paper (pizza boxes, paper plates & cups, napkins, etc.) go in Compost (Green).

Not all plastics are recyclable – plastic utensils, plastic bags, plastic straws, candy bar and chip wrappers, juice boxes - all go into the Garbage (Black).

Completely clean paper/cardboard go in the Paper Recycling (Gray). Please break down the cardboard boxes.
