Pastor's Corner

Fr. Carl's excerpts from Pope Francis' reflection for today entitled Missionary Church, Witness of Mercy.

The Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy, which the Church is celebrating, casts a distinct light on World Mission Sunday 2016: it invites us to consider the missio ad gentes as a great, immense work of mercy, both spiritual and material. On this World Mission Sunday, all of us are invited to "go out" as missionary disciples, each generously offering their talents, creativity, wisdom and experience in order to bring the message of God's tenderness and compassion to the entire human family...

When mercy encounters a person, it brings deep joy to the Father's heart; for from the beginning the Father has lovingly turned towards the most vulnerable, because his greatness and power are revealed precisely in his capacity to identify with the young, the marginalized and the oppressed (cf. Deut 4:31; Ps 86:15; 103:8; 111:4). He is a kind, caring and faithful God who is close to those in need, especially the poor; he involves himself tenderly in human reality just as a father and mother do in the lives of their children (cf. Jer 31:20). When speaking of the womb, the Bible uses the word that signifies mercy: therefore it refers to the love of a mother for her children, whom she will always love, in every circumstance and regardless of what happens, because they are the fruit of her womb...

... The considerable and growing presence of women in the missionary world, working alongside their male counterparts, is a significant sign of God's maternal love. Women, lay and religious, and today even many families, carry out their missionary vocation in various forms: ... in caring for life, with a strong focus on people rather than structures, and by allocating human and spiritual resources towards the building of good relations, harmony, peace, solidarity, dialogue, cooperation and fraternity, both among individuals and in social and cultural life, in particular through care for the poor.

... Faith is God's gift and not the result of proselytizing; rather it grows thanks to the faith and charity of evangelizers who witness to Christ. As they travel through the streets of the world, the disciples of Jesus need to have a love without limits, the same measure of love that our Lord has for all people. We proclaim the most beautiful and greatest gifts that he has given us: his life and his love.

May Holy Mary, sublime icon of redeemed humanity, model of missionaries for the Church, teach all men, women and families, to foster and safeguard the living and mysterious presence of the Risen Lord in every place, he who renews personal relationships, cultures and peoples, and who fills all with joyful mercy.

Peace & Social Justice

More about Pax Christi

Pax Christi, an international Catholic peace movement whose mission is "to transform a world shaken by violence, terrorism, deepening inequalities, and global insecurity," was founded in the aftermath of the Second World War in an effort to foster reconciliation between French and German citizens. Today there are more than 100 member organizations, of which Pax Christi USA is one.

Pax Christi International was recognized as the "official international Catholic peace movement" by Pope Pius XII in 1952, and was awarded the UNESCO Peace Education Prize in 1983.

This year, Pax Christi International was one of the sponsors of a Conference on Just Peace and Nonviolence, which took place at the Vatican in April. The outcome of the conference was a statement urging the Catholic Church to recommit to the centrality of Gospel nonviolence, and to replace the centuries-old "just war" tradition with a "just peace" approach. Organizations and individuals are invited to read this very eloquent appeal and add their names to it: go to <https://nonviolencejustpeace.net>.

We can contribute further to peacemaking by becoming a dues-paying member of Pax Christi, either the national organization (www.paxchristiusa.org), or the local chapter (paxchristinorcal.org). PCUSA reminds us that "there is strength in n

Invitation to join our Rosary after daily Mass in the morning, Monday through Saturday

You are invited to join us in our daily Rosary after morning Mass during the week. The numbers are growing and we welcome you too! Thank you.

The Rosary or rosarium in Latin and in the sense of a "crown of roses" or a "garland of roses", is often in the form of the Dominican Rosary. It is a type or form of prayer used especially in the Roman Catholic Church named for the string of prayer beads. These prayer beads are used to count the component prayers of the Rosary.

Please join us in prayer after morning Mass.

ENDOW

Endow will meet Fridays at 7:00 p.m. in Norton Hall.

This is a small study group capped at 12 women. It is open to women of all ages. No homework – the study guide is covered during the meeting.

This class is a meditation on God's design for man and woman; it contains the theological foundations for John Paul II's claim that an authentic feminine presence is essential to building a civilization of love.

Registration is online at www.EndowGroups.org/join-a-group or by calling the Endow office at 720-382-5242. Note: We will not meet Friday, October 21st due to the Fall Festival set up.
