Ministry Sunday Coming October 19th & 20th

Did you know that our parish has over three dozen active ministries? From our fabulous choir, ministers of the Eucharist, and ushers to our longstanding Sunday Dinners program, parishioners are sharing their faith in community with others.

Engaging in a parish ministry is a wonderful opportunity for you to share your talents, deepen your faith, and meet other parishioners. More details will be published in next week's Bulletin about Ministry Sunday. The Parish Council hopes to see you there!

Saint Andrew Kim Taegeon

Apostolic work in Korea began late. Yet when the first missionaries arrived from France in 1836, they found that Catholicism had already taken root; the faith had been spread by laypeople. During the mid-19th century the Joseon Dynasty tried to suppress Christianity and many Catholics were martyred. Among them was Andrew Kim Tae-gŏn, the first native-born Korean Catholic priest.

Saint Andrew Kim was born to Catholic parents. After his father was martyred, Kim was baptized and he later went to seminary in the Portuguese colony of Macau (near Hong Kong). Ordained in Shanghai by the French bishop Jean-Joseph Ferréol, Kim returned to Korea with the bishop to evangelize his people. Andrew Kim was tortured and beheaded in 1846, at the age of 25.

St. Pope John Paul II canonized Kim along with 103 Korean martyrs during a trip to Korea in 1984. Their feast day is observed this Friday, September 20th.

Oakland is the home of the St. Andrew Kim Korean Pastoral Center. Although it is not a parish, it functions like one. It provides liturgy, sacraments and outreach to the Korean community in the East Bay. It is staffed by priests from the Catholic Church in Korea rather than the Diocese of Oakland. In effect, it is a mission of the Church in Korea. As far as I know, Korea is unique ministering to its expatriates this way. The cultural center enjoys a strong working relationship with the Oakland Diocese.

Prayer for Peace in Troubled Lands

As ongoing wars continue to create severe humanitarian hardships, we have returned to reciting our prayer for peace at the end of each Mass. When Christians witness so much suffering, we ask, What can we do? We don't just pray, we also act. If you have the urge to act, or just to learn, please go to Catholic Relief Services' website to find out about the compassionate aid being given there: tinyurl.com/CRS-WB-Gaza

I pray for your peace in troubled lands, in places where people fear each day,
in cities or villages under threat of danger.

I pray your peace into the hearts of those who hate,
into the minds of those who live in anger,
of those who long for revenge.

The hot winds of war sweep over so many lives,
dear God, terror and cruelty following in their wake,

I do not know what else to do, but stand here making my appeal to heaven.

Peace I pray.

Peace against all the odds, peace without compromise, peace strong and enduring, peace so children never worry as they go to sleep.

Steven Charleston, Episcopal Bishop and Citizen of the Choctaw Nation
