Isaiah 53 Word-Find

Try to find in the puzzle the words written in CAPITALS in today's first reading.

Use the leftover letters to fill in the blanks at the end!

The Lord was PLEAS to CRUSH him in INFIRMITY.

If he GIVES his life as an OFFERING for sin, he shall see his descendents in a long LIFE, and the will of the Lord will be accomplished through him.

Because of his AFFLICTION he shall see the LIGHT in FULLNESS of DAYS; through his SUFFERING, my SERVANT shall JUSTIFY many, and their GUILT he shall bear.

Saint Luigi Guanella

Luigi Guanella's life did not have an auspicious beginning. Born into a devout but illiterate family in the Italian Alps, Luigi's impoverished childhood would profoundly affect his later ministry. He entered the seminary at age 12, and was ordained in 1866. While Luigi began his ministry as a parish priest, he later entered the Salesian Order, where he assisted St. John Bosco in his care of homeless children. Shortly thereafter, he pioneered a program supporting the rehabilitation of boys and girls abandoned and rejected by society because of their physical and mental disabilities.

Henceforth, Fr. Guanella dedicated his life to serving the poor and disabled. A talented writer and preacher, he wrote books, articles, and gave many speeches in Italy to advocate for those with disabilities and to further the concept that these "good children," as Fr. Guanella called them, were deserving of our love and attention. He founded two new congregations to further his ministry: the Daughters of St. Mary of Providence and the Servants of Charity. In 1886, Fr. Guanella opened the first established residential school in Como, Italy, for his beloved "good children." In the early twentieth century, under the protection of Pope Pius X, he opened a facility for children living on the streets of Rome. Later he built the Church of Saint Joseph there.

In December 1912, Fr. Luigi traveled to some major cities in the United States and was dismayed by the plight of the Italian immigrants he met. The next year he sent six Daughters of St. Mary of Providence to Chicago to work with girls with intellectual disabilities. He died three years later, and was beatified by Pope Paul VI in 1964.

St. Luigi Guanella, 1842-1915

William Glisson holds a prayer card and the relic his mother used for the intercession of Saint Luigi in his recovery.

I have a personal connection with Fr. Luigi Guanella. The Church requires that any candidate for sainthood have a miracle attributed to him or her. In Guanella's case, that miracle occurred to a distant relative of mine — William Glisson, Jr., of Philadelphia. In 2010, at the age of 21, William fell into a hole and hit his head while roller blading backwards without a helmet. He underwent two skull surgeries and was in a coma for two weeks, from which he was not expected to recover.

A family friend (who had worked at a rehabilitation center run by Guanella's Servants of Charity) gave William's mother two relics of Blessed Luigi. With the prayers of his mother and the Servants of Charity, William completely recovered and was back to work in just seven months. The Church declared that the source of his miraculous recovery was Fr. Luigi's intercession. Thus Pope Benedict declared him a saint the following year, and October 24th is now celebrated as his feast day.

Ministry Weekend Is Here!

No matter which Mass you attend this weekend, you will see the church filled with posters, each with a short description of an active ministry in our parish. Each of these ministries welcomes new members.

Dorothy Stewart reading at Mass.

After each Mass, you can read about these ministries and sign up for any that appeal to you. This is a great way to get to know new people and to deepen your faith. We look forward to seeing you there!
