Sunday, March 16th @ 12:30 pm: “Living Directory”

— See description below.

“A LIVING DIRECTORY” ~ AFTERNOON OF DISCUSSION & FOOD

It's a fact universally acknowledged that parishioners (and pastors) use a church directory to learn who is who. The REC Committee is proposing a series of encounters we're calling a "living directory." Based on the model established by the parish Men's Group, we'll gather around small tables to answer some questions, and then share our responses with the larger group.

The theme: our identities — familial, regional, ethnic, spiritual, national, gendered, religious....

The first gathering will take place after the 11:30 am Mass (~ 12:30 pm) on Sunday, March 16th. Food and drink will be provided; salads & desserts are welcomed.

Questions / RSVP to bulletin@marymagdalen.org.

Notes from Fr. Nick

Patricia Eileen Apone Glisson RIP

My mother, Pat Glisson, was the soul and compass of the Glisson family for most of her 96 years. Born on June 15th, 1928, to Nicholas and Katherine Apone in Latrobe, Pennsylvania, Pat spent her childhood in Youngstown and Warren, Ohio. In 1946, her family relocated to Sarasota, Florida, and Pat completed her nurse's training at Saint Vincent's Hospital in Jacksonville.

In 1950 Pat married James T. ("Jake") Glisson II, who would become an artist and writer, with her assistance, through their many years of marriage. Jake may have given the family an artistic flair, but it was Pat who kept everyone grounded. She saw to her five children's Catholic faith, education and welfare. Through her encouragement and support, her children's careers and families took shape. She gave her children a sharp wit, intellectual curiosity and love of the arts.

At a conference in Luxembourg, 1969

Although at heart a homebody, Pat became a world traveler as she journeyed far from the family home in Evinston, south of Gainesville. Her husband Jake's work took them to Mexico, Argentina and Germany.

A wicked sense of humor was one of Pat's trademarks. It ranged from erudite to naughty and macabre. Pets were always part of her family. When asked if she liked them more than people, her silence gave answer. Her musical tastes ranged from classical to bluegrass, and she played the accordion with a vengeance.

Pat was not without her foibles. She managed to raise rather punctual children who learned to endure her perennial tardiness. She had a penchant for losing things—once, an entire cooked ham just before dinner! She was far more interested in good conversation with old friends, devouring the latest New York Times bestseller or helping one of her children with a school project than with domestic duties.

Never a high-energy person, her husband's passing in 2019 and the pandemic began Pat's decline. On February 7th, 2025, her body finally just gave up. The Magnolia Ridge Rehabilitation Center in Gainesville had ably cared for her since August 2022.

Patricia is survived by her sister, Kay Ponder; her children, Nicholas, James Thomas III, Steven, and Jeannie; her grandchildren, James Thomas IV, Nathaniel, and Fiona; plus numerous nieces and nephews. Her son Will and her sister Anita preceded her in death.

A funeral Vigil will be held for Pat at the Methodist church in Evinston on Wednesday, February 19th. The Mass of Christian Burial will follow at Holy Faith Catholic Church in Gainesville the next day, followed by a reception. Interment will take place at the family gravesite in Citra.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Catholic Charities or the Voices of Change Animal League.

JustFaith Lenten Series

Would you like to enrich your Lent this year?

Parishioners who have engaged in small faith group discussions in the past have always found them spiritually rewarding. The JustFaith Lenten Series consists of six one-hour sessions, an optional mini-retreat, and discussion questions for an optional post-Easter gathering.

Are you interested? At present, we are planning an in-person group that would meet in the parish on Wednesday morning from 10:30 am to 11:30 am, and a virtual group that would meet over Zoom on Thursday mornings.

Please email Mary Hurd (mbhurd@comcast.net) or Maureen Wesolowski (mwesolowski@gmail.com), letting them know which day would work best with your schedule. Groups will begin meeting the week of March 2nd, and finish before Holy Week.

Here is today's first reading, from Jeremiah.
Fill in the blanks using the words from the list and fit them into the puzzle.

Thus says the Lord:

8a is the one who trusts in 7d 17a,
3a seeks 4d strength 18d flesh,
whose heart turns away 16d the Lord.
12d is like a 13a 17d in the desert
11a enjoys no change of season,
14a stands in a lava waste, a salt and empty earth.
Blessed is the one who 5a in the Lord,
whose hope is the 15d.
He 2d like a 11d planted 14d the waters that stretches out its 19a to the 6d:
it fears not the 21a when 20d comes; its leaves stay 1d
in the 10a of drought it shows no 9d, but still bears fruit.
