SAVE THE DATE!

Farewell to Dc. David Paternostro, S.J. Sunday, May 20th, Noon-2:30 pm

We have been blessed to have David Paternostro, S.J., serve our parish as deacon these past two years. He arrived in 2016, led our candidates and catechumens to confirmation, and became our visual and spiritual anchor as we 'transitioned' into a Diocesan parish. Come, let us celebrate his transition to the priesthood!

STEINBECK

Next Parish Book Group Meeting: Saturday, April 28th

After some heavy reading over the past few months, the Book Group has chosen a light classic from the past: John Steinbeck's Travels with Charley: In Search of America. We'll meet to discuss it on Saturday, April 28th, at 10:00 am in the Parish Conference Room. Rent or buy the book and join us!

Social Justice Notes

TODAY (Sunday April 8th), 11:00 am ~ Noon "Let Our People Go" protest at West County Detention Center, 5555 Giant Highway, Richmond. Join other community members in a circle of protest in the wake of Bay Area ICE raids, the federal lawsuit against California and the shutdown of CIVIC's weekly visits to detainees. Sign up or get more information at Facebook.com (search "Bend the Arc Jewish Action"). This event is in addition to the regular interfaith vigils held at the Richmond Detention Center on the first Saturday of each month.

CROP Hunger Walk

Sunday, April 29, 1:00 pm

CROP HUNGER WALKS SUPPORT MORE THAN 2200 HUNGER-FIGHTING GROUPS IN THE U.S.
crophungerwalk.org

CROP Hunger Walks are yearly fundraisers that take place all over the U.S. Their aim is twofold: (1) to raise awareness about peoples around the world who lack food, water, sanitation and other necessities of life; and (2) to raise funds to help stop hunger wherever it exists. 75% of the funds raised go towards international relief through the Church World Service (or to another organization if the donor prefers); 25% to organizations that address hunger at the local level.

This year's Berkeley CROP Hunger Walk will take place on Sunday, April 29th at 1:00 p.m. St. Mary Magdalen is again the host parish. Please join our parish team! The 5 KM walk from Berryman Street to downtown Berkeley is not too strenuous, and it is a great way to meet people of various faiths who share Pope Francis' concern for the poor.

To sign up for the Walk, please contact Anne Easterbrook at anneeasterbrook8@gmail.com.

Whether or not you plan to walk, you can contribute online: go to crophungerwalk.org/berkeleyca and type "St. Mary Magdalen" in the space provided.

REFUGEE AID MEETING THIS FRIDAY!
4:00-5:00 pm in the Conference Room. Please come and learn what members of our parish are doing to help local refugees, both through the IRC (see article at upper left), and through the Casa Francisca Refugee House in Oakland.

Report on the Lenten Giving Tree

Our second-year Lenten Giving Tree project was quite successful. Your generosity has again provided household and personal care items that will help several refugee families as they begin new lives in Alameda County. Boxes with the items that you donated (plus those valuable Target gift cards and cash donations) will soon be moved to the Oakland office of the International Refugee Committee (IRC).

Thanks are due to some key people who helped keep this project running during our Lenten season:

Fr. Nick for his support; and the office staff, Norah Hippolyte, Carolyn Tune, Laura Morland and Cat Nielsen, who kept and stored early donations in the rectory and printed messages in the bulletin and online to publicize the needed donations, and timing.

At the School of the Madeleine, Heather Skinner and Joseph Nagel steered the involvement of our middle school students, while parent volunteer Rowena Tarantino oversaw the student volunteers who sorted and packed the items. Those hard-working students were: Penelope Toland, Izzy Siegel, Benito Ruiz, Lauren Mark, Rameen Khan, Lila Higley, Lucia Tarantino, Gabriel Tarantino, Nico Ulloa, George Rice, and Dominic Storella.

Thanks to one and all! Our community rocks!

~ Katie Calvert, Project Coordinator

Longtime Parishioner Helen

Rendón died at 8:00 am on Easter Monday. She had volunteered in many capacities in our parish, including with RCIA, and was a Lector at the 8:00 am Sunday Mass for nearly 30 years. In 2008, she set up an annual scholarship for School of the Madeleine children.

Our former pastor, Fr. David Farrugia, OP, will celebrate her Funeral Mass this Tuesday, April 10th, at 10:00 am, followed by a reception downstairs. There will be a Wake the night before (Monday, April 9th), from 7:00 to 9:00 pm in Norton Hall.

Burial at St. Dominic's Cemetery will be for family only. Rather than flowers, please send a donation to the Alzheimer's Foundation: alzfdn.org

Notes from Fr. Nick

The Octave of Easter

Easter and Christmas are feasts that are celebrated as an 'octave'. By the Church's reckoning, the entire week following these feasts is celebrated as though every day is the feast itself. This probably had its origins in the eight-day celebration of the Jewish feast of Tabernacles. It was introduced to Christians under the Emperor Constantine in the fourth century for the dedication of new churches such as the basilica at Jerusalem.

The first liturgical feasts to be celebrated with an octave were Easter and Pentecost. In the Middle Ages, many saints' feasts acquired an octave as well. Confusion resulted as the number of octaves grew and overlapped each other. Popes Pius V and X removed many of these from the calendar, and eventually Pope Pius XII removed all but Christmas, Easter and Pentecost. After the Second Vatican Council, Pentecost was removed as well. Christmas and Easter retain their octaves, which points to their supreme importance in the life of our faith.

The Octave of Easter has particular significance because it is an opportunity for the Neophytes (newly baptized and those who were received into full communion with the Church) to savor their experience of last Saturday night for a whole week. Although they will continue through Pentecost in the period of Mystagogy, this past week may be likened to their 'honeymoon'. You'll find the photos of our seven Neophytes on the cover of this Bulletin; please welcome them warmly into our parish, and into our faith.
