Where in the World Is Our Former Pastor?

Fr. Carl's photo of the Temple of Castor & Pollux, Rome

After circumnavigating the globe on a freighter, spending three months as a monk in Massachusetts, another three months studying in Rome, experiencing Holy Week in the Holy Land, then Lourdes and Oxford... Fr. Carl has returned to the Bay Area! He is currently assigned to St. Raymond Penafort parish in Menlo Park, whose pastor is Fr. Daniel Syverstad, OP, former Western Dominican Provincial and a beloved Parochial Vicar at St. Mary Magdalen in the late 1980s. To get in touch with Fr. Carl, the parish office number at St. Raymond's is 650-323-1755.

Next weekend we'll be celebrating a Festival in honor of our patroness! Saturday morning at 10:00 am, renowned musicologist John Prescott is donating his time for this fundraiser for our parish. (Suggested Donation: $20.) He will introduce us to works about our patron saint from the Renaissance and Baroque periods, which will be performed live by the members of the Schola Magdalen and our director, Andy Canepa. The following day, special music will be heard at 9:30 & 11:00 Masses, followed by an Mini-Concert at Noon and an Open House in the Rectory.

Please sign up for the Potluck Open House! Call the office or click: marymagdalen.org/rectory-open-house/

Turn to page 6, please, for even more details.

Note: the 8:00 am Mass will be 'smokeless' (no incense).

The Parish Book Group is Reading The Trouble with Goats and Sheep

Looking for a good summer read? The parish Book Group is skipping the month of July, to reunite at 10:00 am on Saturday, August 4th, in the Conference Room. This will give everyone plenty of time to read what the Guardian's critic calls "one of the best, most lively and funny openings" to a book she'd read in ages. Rent or purchase Joanna Cannon's The Trouble with Goats and Sheep, and join us for a lively discussion.

Saint Mary Magdalen Festival

One of my first homilies as the new pastor at Saint Mary Magdalen was on our patron's feast. As a confidante of Jesus, Mary Magdalen shaped the Church in profound ways. Here are a few ways Mary Magdalen and other women continue to breathe the Spirit into the Church:

As a woman, Mary Magdalen's presence confirmed the fact that women were a part of Christ's inner circle. The male-centric ancient world struggled with this fact, and we are still working out the role of women in the Church today. But, because she and other women of the New Testament were crucial to the story of Jesus' life, it has been hard to push them out of the picture. Mary Magdalen continues to challenge the status quo in the Church.

Saint Luke mentions that Mary Magdalen was among the women who provided financially for the needs of Jesus, and who, along with the other disciples, accompanied him as he traveled proclaiming the Gospel (Luke 8:1-3). We can infer that Mary was, therefore, a woman of means. She did not merely receive the Good News, but actively provided for Jesus' ministry. Her actions were a sign of her real commitment to Jesus, and to his message.

Mary Magdalen was fearless. She was risking her life to care for Jesus' lifeless body, yet she went to the tomb to perform the prescribed anointings. For this act of devotion, Christ rewarded her as the first person to be privileged to see him raised from the dead. In turn, she became the evangelist of the Risen Christ.

Falling in July, Mary Magdalen's feast comes at a relatively quiet time of year. Rather than just celebrating her solemnity on Sunday, we are honoring Mary with a festival. On Saturday morning, we are hosting a 'Prescott Lecture' in the church on Mary Magdalen's presence in Renaissance and Baroque music, complete with live music. For Sunday, our music director, Andy Canepa, has been rehearsing with the 9:30 and 11:00 am choirs to provide special music at those Masses, and will present a 'Mini-Concert' (roughly 15 minutes) immediately after the 11:00 Mass. In addition, a special speaker will be giving her reflections during the homily time at all weekend Masses.

Finally, I am inviting all of you to join me in continuing the celebration downstairs in the Rectory after the 11:00 am Mass.

Since we will also be hosting the 4th Sunday Dinner for the Homeless, please enter (and exit) via the entrance next to the garage.

Note: There will be incense at all Masses, except for the 8:00 am Mass, designated as a 'Smokeless Mass'.

Parish News

Parish Bakers Needed!

As Fr. Nick discusses in his column, next week-end the parish will celebrate St. Mary Magdalen's Feast Day. At 10:00 am on Saturday, the renowned musicologist John Prescott will give a lecture in the church, with live music. After the 11:00 am Mass, Fr. Nick will host a potluck lunch for all parishioners in the Rectory.

Please contact Laura at the parish office if you can help with the setup, or if you'd like to bake madeleines for the occasion. 510-526-4822 x 118

(Madeleine tins and fleur d'oranger are currently en route from Paris, and will be gladly shared.)

Thank You Dinner for Current Volunteers of the Dinners for the Poor and Homeless

St. Mary Magdalen Parish is hosting a 'Thank You Dinner' for the great team of people who currently work so diligently on the 1st and 4th Sunday Dinners each month. We believe that a dinner should be cooked and served for you.

The 'Thank You Dinner' will take place on Saturday, August 18th in the Parish Hall. You and your spouse are welcome to come as early as 6:30 and dinner will be served at 7:30.

Please RSVP as soon as possible, either by via email to parish@marymagdalen.org, or by phoning the office (526-4811) no later than Monday, August 6th. Let us know if you will be bringing your spouse and if you have any dietary restrictions.

Looking forward to the occasion!

Social Justice Notes

Stop Separating Families

Please continue to speak up by calling, writing, and "showing up" to protest the inhumane treatment of vulnerable individuals and families seeking safety and shelter from violence. This is an ongoing humanitarian crisis in our country, and the U.S. Bishops are calling us to action!

How to stay active: Send postcards to Federal agencies that are still separating and incarcerating immigrant families. See the "Communications" tab on the Parish website and click on "Social Justice Information" for the link to the June 24th Bulletin insert and other information about ways that we as Catholics can support immigrants and refugees.

Support and donate to "Keep Families Together" sponsored by Catholic Extension. Visit their website catholicextension.org to learn about the Kino Border Initiative in Nogales, Arizona, and shelters in the Rio Grande Valley that this organization supports.

Immigrant Seeks Work as Childcare Worker

Can you provide a temporary job? The Nueva Esperanza accompaniment program with Ygnacio Valley Presbyterian is accompanying a family, asylum seekers who have made the incredibly difficult decision of taking a voluntary exit (self-deportation). If you are able to donate to this immigrant family, or provide a short-term job offer before they return to their home country, it would be greatly appreciated.

The mother is a skilled child-care provider with years of experience at a child-care facility, and a skilled housecleaner and prep cook. She is very eager to work and a fast worker.

MARCH FOR NUCLEAR ABOLITION

Monday, August 6: 8:00 am rally, and 9:30 program
Commemorate the bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki by joining others to protest the development of nuclear weapons at Livermore Lab. This year's speakers include Daniel Ellsberg, Rev. Nobuaki Hanaoka, atomic bomb survivor, and Prof. Christine Hong, a UC Santa Cruz professor and expert on North Korea.
