Peace & Justice Notes

Take a Stand Against Gun Violence — join the CeaseFire walk at St. Columba on Friday, September 9th. All the Oakland Cease-Fire Walks begin at 6:00 pm with prayers; then signs are distributed at the start of an hour-long walk around the neighborhood.

If you can't make it on September 9th, other walks are scheduled (see below), but we are encouraging St. Mary Magdalen parishioners to participate in this walk, as St. Columba is our neighbor and part of our larger community!

- ◆ Sept. 9th St. Columba Catholic Church - 6401 San Pablo Avenue
- ◆ Sept. 16th St. Elizabeth Catholic Church - 1500 34th Avenue
- ◆ Sept. 23rd At Thy Word - 8915 Int'l Blvd.
- ◆ Sept. 30th St. Benedict Catholic Church - 2245 82nd Avenue

Sansei Granddaughters' Journey: From Remembrance to Resistance

An exhibit honoring the history of the incarceration of Japanese Americans during World War II, featuring five Bay Area women artists (see below), is open at AZ Gallery through September 3rd.

The location was chosen because AZ Gallery is situated in the Tanforan Mall, and in 1942, the Tanforan racetrack was turned into a temporary detention center for many Bay Area Japanese Americans before they were sent to internment camps. AZ Gallery is located at 1150 El Camino Real in San Bruno. The exhibit is open Wednesdays through Sundays, and admission is free.

Notes from Fr. Nick

Back to School!

One of the most distressing absences during the pandemic was the distinctive sound of children on our school playground. A sound we often took for granted was absent and sorely missed. Happily, the laughter, screams, and banter were back full force for most of 2022. For all its trials, the School of the Madeleine survived and grew stronger during these difficult times. I look forward to our students' return this week.

One priority that Principal Joseph Nagel, the School Board, and faculty are emphasizing since the pandemic is to diversify our student body. This may not be quite what you think. Our students already represent a broad cross-section of Berkeley's culture. Where we may not do so well is in economic diversity. We are now the only Catholic elementary school in the city, and so we have a responsibility to include students from a larger swath of our community's income levels.

We are fortunate that many people have stepped forward to offer scholarships to students from families who may not be able to budget our school's actual tuition. The facilities are capable of accommodating about 30 more students than are currently enrolled, while keeping class sizes at appropriate levels. Some grades have more room than others, but it seems a shame to have empty desks when we know we offer an education of extraordinary quality.

If you are a family who would like to enroll your children in our school, by all means contact the School of the Madeleine this week! Maybe you know of families who would benefit from the education we provide; get them in touch with us. Perhaps you have no school-aged children, but would like to contribute to our scholarship fund — please contact Advancement Director, Debbie Dinneen at 510-526-4744.

The Dominican Pillars of prayer, service, community and study are the core of our school's philosophy. They not only put our students in touch with our faith, but build well-rounded individuals who will stand out in society as they mature into adults. There is no better preparation for your children's future than the Catholic education the School of the Madeleine provides.

The background of the advertisement is a photograph of an open book with a heart-shaped object resting on its pages. The heart is made of a dark, reflective material, possibly metal or wood, and is illuminated from behind, creating a warm, golden glow. The text "GOD IS LOVE" is written in a blue, serif font in the upper right corner of the image.

GOD IS

Mass & Dedication of Memorial Plaque for Eunice Jackson

Last Sunday, August 14th, members of Eunice Jackson's family were present at the 9:30 am Mass in her honor, followed by a dedication of a plaque on the first tier of the steps of the School of the Madeleine Dominican Garden.

Top left: Fr. Nick called the members of the Jackson family to stand before the plaque as the ceremony commenced.

Bottom: Fr. Michael Dodds, OP, former priest-in-residence, presided at the Mass and ceremony, while our Pastor, Fr. Nick Glisson, held the aspergillum (and aspersorium) for the blessing of the plaque bearing Eunice's name.

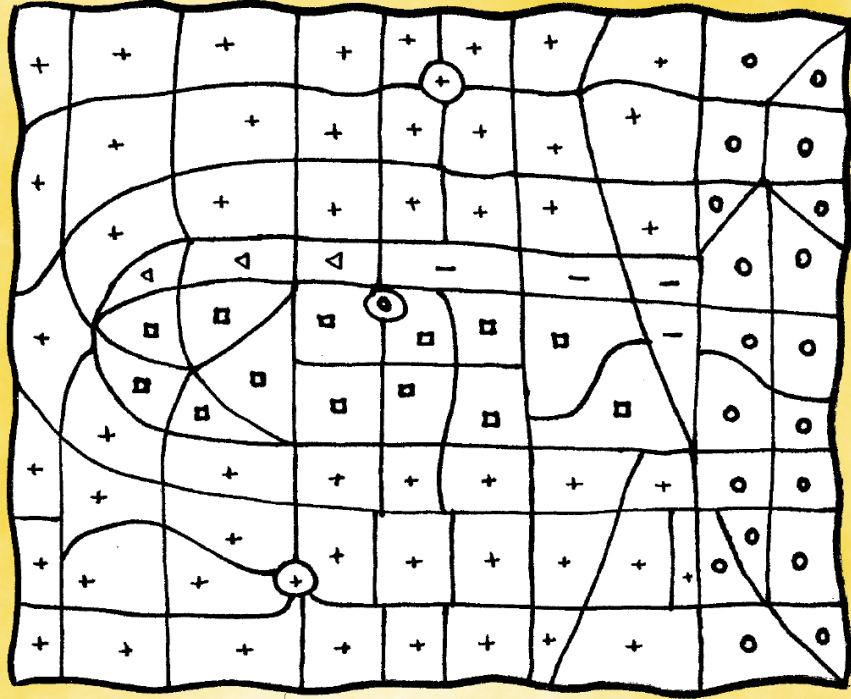

Afterwards, parishioners joined the family for a reception at Norton Hall, catered by parishioner Lourdes Guzman.
