Forgive for Good

9 Steps to Forgiveness

The practice of forgiveness has been shown to reduce anger, hurt, depression, and stress and leads to greater feelings of hope, peace, compassion, and self confidence. Practicing forgiveness leads to healthy relationships as well as physical health. It also influences our attitude which opens the heart to kindness, beauty, and love.

And what about forgiving myself? Is there any person or experience that cannot be forgiven? Jesus asks us to forgive "Seventy times seven." How is that even possible? Dr. Luskin will show us how forgiveness is not only possible, but absolutely necessary.

DR. FRED LUSKIN, PH. D. has founded and currently serves as Director of the Stanford University Forgiveness Projects. His forgiveness work has been applied in churches, in veteran's hospitals in resolving legal disputes, and in helping people deal with a wide range of concerns to improve physical and mental health.

Notes from Fr. Nick

HALLOWE'EN, ALL SAINTS, ALL SOULS

In the United States, Hallowe'en is reported to be the second most expensive holiday after Christmas. This seems rather odd, considering that it is only the vigil of two other major feasts. Understanding the context of Hallowe'en may help give us a deeper sense of the feasts it precedes and allow us to keep it in perspective.

The word "Hallowe'en" is an archaic way of saying All Hallows' Eve or the Vigil of All Saints Day. There is a parallel between Hallowe'en and Mardi Gras, in that both days serve to let people enjoy some gaiety before getting on to the solemn business of honoring the saints or observing Lent.

Some pleasant memories from my youth include escorting younger children around our village in a progressive party that took place in our neighbors' houses. Evinston, Florida was too small to support full-fledged trick-or-treating, and so all the children gathered together and enjoyed treats, games and surprises at each house in the village. It was always one of the first cool evenings of autumn, and the smell of wood burning in fireplaces and ripening citrus fruit remain particularly vivid in my memory.

The next day, we Catholics had to go to Mass, as the Feast of All Saints was (and remains) a Holy Day of Obligation. It is a day when we remembered all the nameless people who lived holy lives and are now with God. We paid less attention to the following day — All Souls' Day — but there was always a large stack of envelopes on the altar so that parishioners could remember their deceased family members and friends. (We were given to understand that All Souls' Day was more prominent in Latin America.)

Celebrating all three days is a way of reaching into our rich Catholic heritage and keeping Hallowe'en from becoming just another commercial occasion. We also encourage you to remember your deceased family and friends in special ways during the month of November, as we conclude the Church year. (See above and below for suggestions.)

NOVEMBER IS THE MONTH OF ALL SOULS.

If you would like for your deceased family members to be remembered at Mass, please fill out an envelope with their names. If you don't receive monthly envelopes, they will be available at the entrances to the church, and in the parish office as well.

Send Us Your Pictures of Loved Ones Who Have Died during the Past Year

We are approaching November, the month during which we remember our dead. As we did last year, we will have an online memorial in addition to the traditional memorial in the alcove of Our Lady of Fatima in the church.

If you would like to include images of your family members who died during the past 12 months in our online memorial, please email a picture with the name and dates of the deceased to Cat Nielsen, website@marymagdalen.org.

As always, you are welcome to bring photographs of your loved ones — framed or hard backing preferred. Kindly put your name and contact information on the back of the photo.

(Please note that the Altar of Remembrance is not limited to loved ones who have died in the past year.)

Mini-Conference on the Japanese-American Experience During World War 2 & Today

Parishioners Arlene Makita-Acuña and Dr. Troy Kaji, who are each children of World War II internees, will discuss their parents' experiences in the concentration camps, and what it means to be a Japanese-American in California today.

Arlene will also share her activities at the archeological dig at Camp Amache (where her parents met and married), and Troy will highlight the life and work of his father, Bruce Kaji, who founded the Japanese-American Museum in Los Angeles.
