Peace & Justice Announcement

Sock Drive for Farmworkers

THIS WEEKEND!

As Lent begins, in addition to the Rice Bowl Collection, the Peace and Justice committee is organizing a sock drive. This year's winter storms and flooding were devastating for farmworkers. One small central valley farming town, Planada, had to evacuate its entire population of over 4000. Mostly low-income farmworkers, these families saw their homes, schools, and businesses flooded when a levee broke, sending water from the Planada Canal into their town. The local St. Vincent de Paul has reached out and asked for help with a sock drive. We welcome new socks for adults and children to be dropped off when you come to the Vigil Mass on Saturday, March 4th or to one of the morning Masses on Sunday, March 5th.

We will have well-marked boxes in the vestibule of the church and in Norton Hall. Thank you.

SOCCER AND A BROKEN RESERVOIR

In the Dry Corridor of Honduras, climate change causes persistent drought, making farming nearly impossible. With support from Catholic Relief Services, Rony, a farmer, repaired an old reservoir and installed a new irrigation system to improve his harvests. Now Rony can send his son to a soccer academy to pursue his dream of becoming a professional player. How can you work like Rony to support others' needs and dreams?

Notes from Fr. Nick

Art & Faith

Many of you may know that I come from a family of artists. My father had a charmed childhood. His next-door-neighbor was Pulitzer Prize-winning author Marjorie Kennan Rawlings, whose best-known work, The Yearling (later made into a motion picture), brought a famous artist, N.C. Wyeth to North Florida to illustrate the book. My ten-year-old dad watched him work, and was to become an artist. My brothers, Tom and Steven, followed Dad's lead and are professional artists themselves.

While I chose not to pursue art as a career, I derive much pleasure from painting. I am not in the same league with my brothers, but I can paint competently enough. Painting doesn't require inordinate skill. The more a person paints, the better they can become.

From where does the drive to create art originate? Art has no practical value (despite how highly original or beautiful practical objects may be considered—a Grecian urn comes to mind). Yet art is made and valued by every culture in the world. I believe the human need to create comes from our desire to imitate God himself. We are made in the image and likeness of God, and our creative urge is a sign of the Creator's imprint on our beings.

Sometimes I think many people never attempt to make art because they believe they need to create something profound. This is too bad, because it stops a would-be artist before he or she gets started. While they may not be high art for the ages, cooking and gardening are part of our creative instinct, and thus connected to our godly nature. These activities are good places to start, but they don't produce anything lasting.

Consider taking on an artistic project. It could be quilting, furniture building, or one of the more traditional arts. I guarantee you'll be happy while you're doing it. Your work may frustrate you when it doesn't turn out as you'd planned, but the time spent will bring relaxation and focus. The deep satisfaction it brings will diminish your stress and strengthen your spirit.

David Lance Goines, artist of our stained-glass windows, died at his nearby home on February 19th.

Activities for Lent

Eucharistic Adoration (Holy Hour) will take place on all the Mondays of Lent, starting at 6:05 pm.

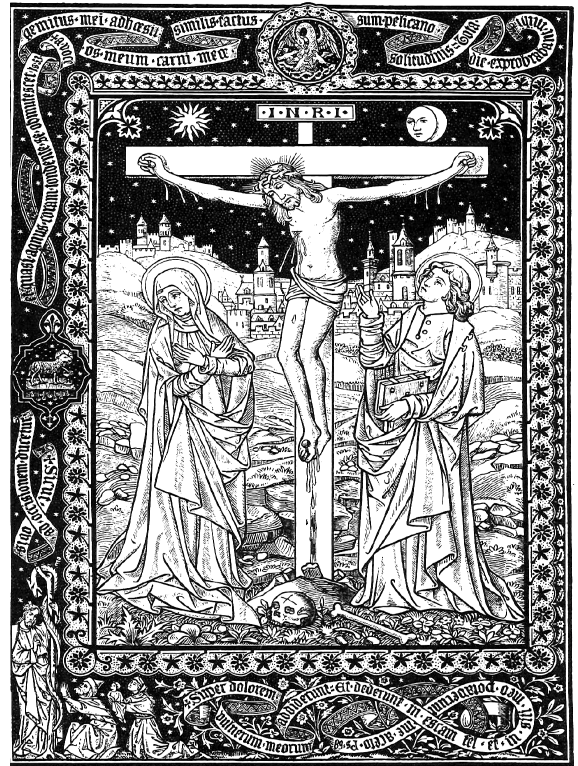

“The Blessed Sacrament is the ‘Living Heart’ of each of our churches and it is our very sweet duty to honor and adore the Blessed Host, which our eyes see, the Incarnate Word, whom they cannot see.”

(Pope Paul VI, Credo of the People of God)

“Jesus waits for us in this sacrament of love.”

(Pope John Paul II, Dominicae Canae)

Parish Lenten Mission

Preached by

Fr. Jude Eli, OP

March 18 - 22, 2023

Saint Mary Magdalen Parish is thrilled to welcome back Fr. Jude Eli, OP, who was a priest-in-residence with us from 1979-1983, and has since become nationally acclaimed for his preaching. The theme for his talks will be: “The Accusations Against Jesus: the Passion Narratives”. Fr. Jude’s perspective will be to explain the motivation and disposition of Caiaphas, Pilate, Judas and Peter.

Each talk will be unique (no repetitions) — try to attend as many as you can!

Last Saturday, the School of the Madeleine Parents Association hosted its annual Crab Feed in person! In addition to Dungeness crab, salad, and pasta, the evening featured dancing and live music by Matt Berkeley & Friends. More than a great party, the event is, along with the annual auction (held concurrently this year), a fundraiser for CYO Athletics, the MAD Band, and other student activities.

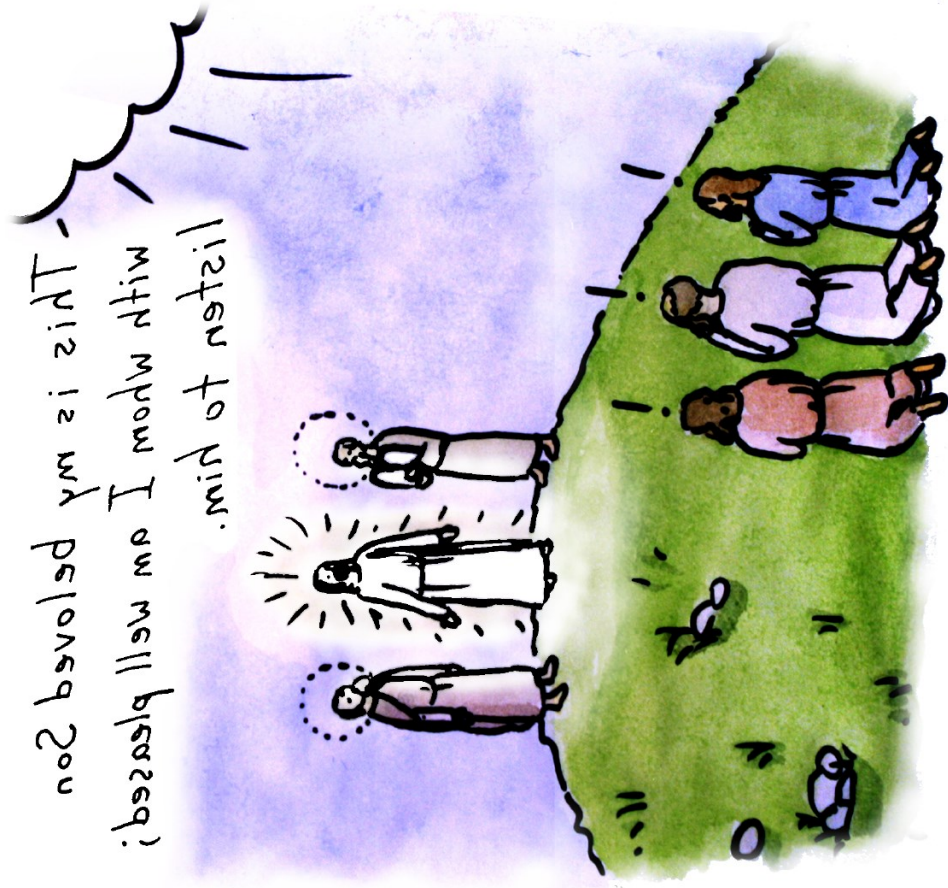

Parents Association Chair Leslie Roulias took the stage.

The Kids' Bulletin

Second Sunday of Lent
March 5th, 2023

What did Peter, James and John hear from the bright cloud when Jesus was transfigured on the mountain?

Look in the mirror to find out!

Word Find

JESUS took Peter, JAMES, and JOHN his brother, and led them up a high MOUNTAIN by THEMSELVES. And he was TRANSFIGURED before them; his FACE SHONE like the SUN and his CLOTHES became WHITE as LIGHT. And behold, Moses and ELIJAH appeared to them, conversing with him. Then PETER said to Jesus in reply, "LORD, it is GOOD that we are here. If you wish, I will make THREE tents here, one for you, one for MOSES and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright CLOUD cast a SHADOW OVER them, then from the cloud came a VOICE that said, "This is my beloved SON, with whom I am well PLEASED; listen to him." When the disciples heard this, they FELL prostrate and were very much afraid. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "RISE, and do not be AFRAID." And when the disciples raised their eyes, they saw no one else but Jesus ALONE.
