MODERN DAY SIMON OF CYRENE

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week. As we walk with Jesus this week, we remember the countless women, children and men who carry heavy crosses even today: crosses of hunger, of vulnerability to climate change, or of a lack of resources. How—like Simon of Cyrene—can you help to carry the crosses of our sisters and brothers in your local community and around the world? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

Let us Treat our Neighbors as We Would Ourselves

As Holy Week approaches, we reprint this request from our neighbors (for those who do not have mobility problems):

“Could you please park in the church lot instead of on the street? Parking in our neighborhood is very limited. Many of us don’t have driveways, and some people have difficulty walking distances between a parking spot and the house.

“Each year, the situation has become a little more difficult, and since you do have a large lot right next to your church, it would be wonderful if those who attend events or services could use that lot. Thank you.”

New Book Corner in Norton Hall

The Parish office bookshelves are overflowing, so it is a good time to extend the library and have a book corner in Norton Hall. We now have a bookshelf in the left corner by the couches to house many interesting books. The mini-library has a wide variety of books in the areas of spiritual growth, grief support, social justice, racial equity, caring for the environment, and even some books for the children to look at during coffee hour after Mass. All the books may be taken home and returned when it is convenient.

Notes from Fr. Nick

The Triduum

The word Triduum reentered the Church's vocabulary after the Second Vatican Council, but it actually names one of our most ancient celebrations. Both Saint Cyril of Jerusalem and Egeria (in her Peregrinatio ad Loca Sancta) attest to these rites in Jerusalem around the year 380. The rituals of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday were considered one liturgy, and receiving new Christians into the Church was central to their celebration.

The Mass of the Lord's Supper that we will celebrate on Holy Thursday evening commemorated the last supper of Jesus, and began an observance so strict that Eucharist would not be celebrated until Saturday evening. This is the 8th-century origin of the procession of the Eucharist out of the main church to another chapel. This is also the Mass during which we follow Jesus' command to serve one another, expressed by washing feet. (John 13:1-11)

Good Friday rituals combine four celebrations: Proclamation of the Passion, Prayers for the Church and World, Reverencing the Cross, and a Communion Service. In commemoration of Christ's death, the Eucharist is not celebrated.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal calls the Easter Vigil "the mother of all vigils." (GIRM 21) In the time of Saint Cyril, the Jerusalemites would spend the night in a vigil of prayer, proclaiming the scriptures and singing and praying for those being baptized. At the same time, new Christians — still in the baptistery at this point — would be immersed in the pool and anointed. Afterward, the newly baptized would join the faithful inside the church and receive the Eucharist for the first time.

Our Triduum liturgy is ancient, long, and quirky. If you expect it to follow a logical progression, or be entertaining, you may find yourself a little disconcerted. However, if you allow yourself to let the Holy Spirit take you into its own logic, you will be deeply affected.

What did Jesus do on the cross? _____

On Good Friday JESUS was taken before King HEROD and the governor, PILATE. Even though He had not committed any crime He was scourged and condemned to die on the CROSS. He CARRIED the cross as far as He could up CALVARY hill, but when He got too weak a man named SIMON of CYRENE was forced to help Him. On the way He met His mother, MARY, who WEPT at seeing her Son in such pain. A woman named VERONICA wiped the blood and sweat from His face with a cloth. At the top of the HILL Jesus was thrown onto the cross and His HANDS and FEET were fastened to it with NAILS. They raised the cross, where Jesus hung for three hours before He DIED. He did all this to SAVE us from Hell. At the cross were JOHN, Mary MAGDALENE, His mother, and some other women. At the moment He died the curtain of the old Temple was TORN in half. When His body was taken down from the cross JOSEPH of Arimathea and NICODEMUS BURIED Him in a new TOMB and rolled a HEAVY STONE in front of the door.
