Here at St. Mary Magdalen:

Fr. Anthony Nwankwo left us in the middle of the Fall Semester, which meant that all the (non-religious-order) priests who had come to Berkeley for graduate studies had already found their housing for the 2022-2023 school year. Thanks to Fr. Ioane Ono, we were able to maintain the Daily Mass schedule for which our parish is much appreciated, until he left on May 13.

Notes from Fr. Nick

Congratulations, Graduates!

Congratulations to the class of eighth-graders of the School of the Madeleine who are graduating this week. These students continue our school's tradition of academic excellence, spiritual values, and healthy competition. We are proud of our faculty, staff, and students of our school, which is the largest ministry in our parish.

Congratulations also to the members of our church who are graduating from high school or university. Education is the most important factor in a successful career. The discipline and skills you learn, the contacts you make, and the knowledge you acquire are the building blocks for a mature personality, one that will allow you to become a contributing member of society.

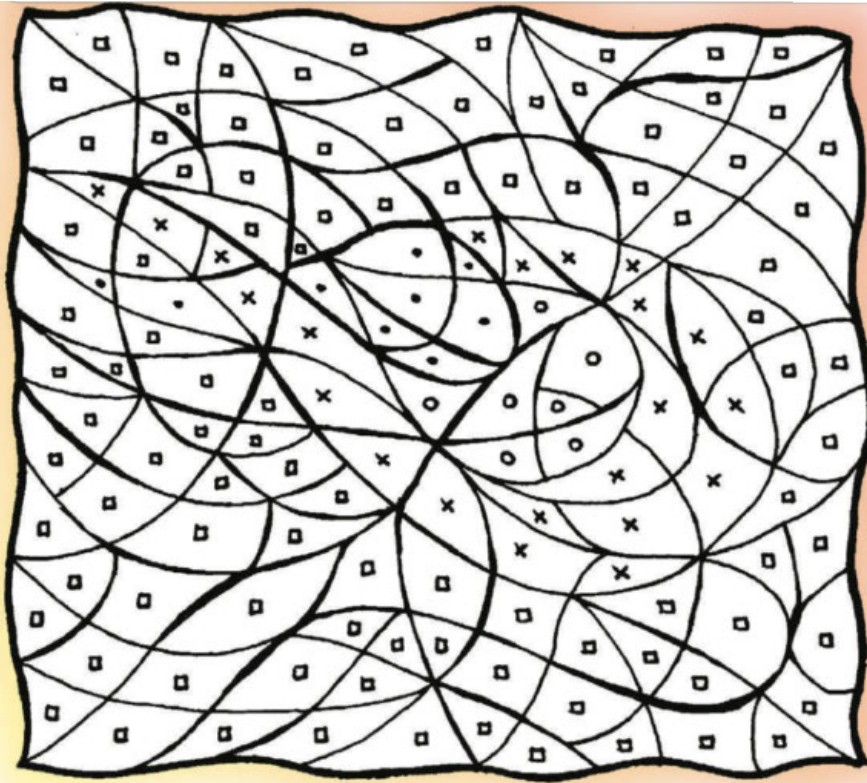

Our principal, Joseph Nagel, wants me to remind everybody that enrollment at the School of the Madeline is open. If you have a child or a grandchild who could enjoy the benefits of a Catholic education, please see us. Your child will have a jump-start in the competitive world of learning. We offer a safe, disciplined environment in which students thrive. Beyond this, our students integrate their faith and spirituality into everything they learn. There is much talk about teaching "character building" these days. Catholic schools have understood this all along. Faith instills values that build character.

Principal Joseph Nagel, center, with Fr. Nick, teachers, administrators, and graduates of the School of the Madeleine Class of 2021.

Unscramble the words to finish the story and use the letters in boxes to fill in the blanks at the end.

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one ⁷ [CPAE] [LCPAE] together. And ⁸ [YLUSSDD] there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving ⁶ [DWNII] and filled the entire ⁵ [USHOE] in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of ³ [ERFI] which parted and came to rest on each of them. And they were all ² [ILFLDE] with the Holy Spirit and ¹ [GNEAB] to speak in different tongues, as the ⁴ [IPSTRU] enabled them to proclaim.
