Opportunity for Spiritual Growth as you Help your Parish celebrate its Liturgies

We need additional people to assist during Mass! Would you consider serving at the Mass as an Altar Server or as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (Eucharistic Minister).

We have scheduled two training periods for Saturday, June 17, 2023. The first will take place from 10:30 to Noon; the second from 12:45 to 2:15 pm. There will be training for either Eucharistic Ministers or Altar Servers — including Adult Altar Servers! — during each training period.

Serving during Mass will not only enrich your experience of it, but you will feel joy in providing a necessary service to the Presider and our parish community. Consider joining us for this valuable training.

For more information, talk to Fr. Nick after Mass, or call Norah at 510-526-4811 x 111.

The Peace & Justice Committee at St. Mary Magdalen

Come join us! We meet monthly at 4:00 pm in Norton Hall on the Friday after the 2nd Wednesday of each month. Our next meeting will take place on Friday, June 16th.

Recent initiatives have included soliciting signatures after Mass for Bread for the World's annual Offering of Letters to our elected representatives in Washington (nearly 300 letters were signed by parishioners), and sponsoring the annual Crop Hunger Walk. Organized by the Church World Service, this year we raised funds jointly with our School and the Jesuit School of Theology to support efforts fighting hunger both internationally and here at home.

This is a wonderful way to connect your Catholic faith to justice activities, while also participating in the deep sense of community that has developed amongst the members.

Come and learn about our current projects!

Clergy & Scholar Mixer

As part of our centennial celebration, our parish will host a gathering of clergy and scholars from the area next Thursday evening, June 8th, from 6:00 to 8:00 pm. Unless I have missed out on something, there has been very little interaction between ministers in Berkeley since I arrived in the parish. Yes, some members of our congregations do work together on meals for the homeless, on social justice and some environmental matters. As well, Temple Beth El has gathered and prayed with us in the past. However, in the nearly six years I've been here at St. Mary Magdalen there has been no meeting where the religious entities of Berkeley have met, shared contact information, and enjoyed food and drink together.

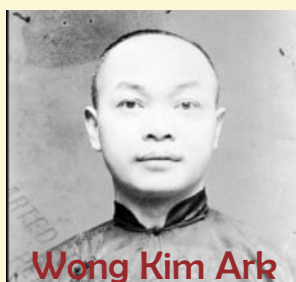

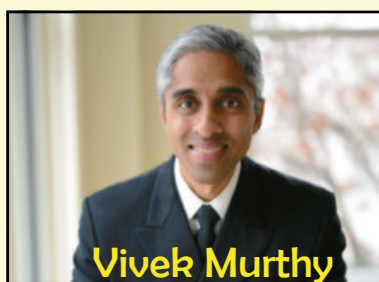

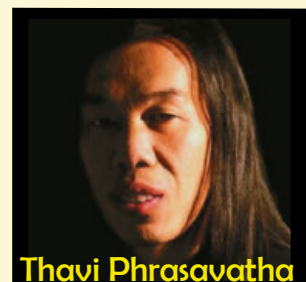

Berkeley and Boston — and to a lesser extent New York, Chicago and Washington, D.C. — are among the very few cities in North America where many religious schools are neighbors and share resources. The presence of the Jesuit School of Theology, the Dominican School of Philosophy and Theology, and the Graduate Theological Union make Berkeley a preeminent center of theological study. I hope our gathering will be an opportunity for the scholars and local clergy to relax and mingle.

I don't have a tight agenda for this gathering. We have asked Rev. Lizette Larson-Miller (last year's Mary Magdalen conference speaker) to give a brief address, and Rabbi Rebekah Stern to offer an invocation, but beyond these planned talks, I expect that the chemistry of the gathering will allow the Spirit to work God's power among us. Sometimes it's nice to just share a drink and some good food in common!

We need people to help with hospitality on Thursday, June 8th! Are you available to help set up, or to serve food or clean up? It will give you the chance to meet some of the luminaries of Berkeley's theological scene, as well as to mix with the pastors, rabbis, imams and teachers who bring faith to life in our community.

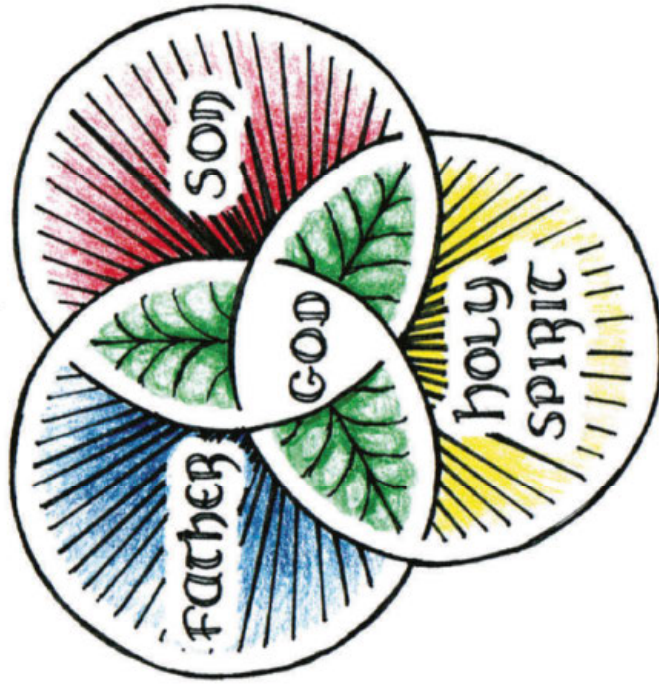

Please let Norah know if you can help out. You can reach her at 510-526-4811 or nhippolyte@marymagdalen.org.
