Notes from Fr. Nick

Welcome Home!

CELEBRATING
100 YEARS

This Sunday we reach a high point in our centennial celebration. As we celebrate the feast of our patron, Saint Mary Magdalen, we look back over the last 100 years and ahead to a strong future proclaiming the Gospel on the north side of Berkeley. We recognize the character and charism of our parish community, and we grow from interaction with the larger community.

First of all, welcome back to all of you who dispersed from our parish over the years and have come home to celebrate with us. Opportunities may have taken you away from Berkeley and our parish, but I hope you still feel a connection with us. Hopefully, you have taken the spirit of Saint Mary Magdalen to the limits of our world and enriched those places in doing so. You will always have a home here.

Secondly, many thanks to the Dominican priests and sisters who so ably ministered in this parish for most of its life. The four pillars of Dominican spirituality — study, prayer, preaching, and community life — are still alive and well here. You have imbued these charisms in our parish and they inform our work and mission every day. Know that you always have a place in our church and school.

Third, thanks to all who work in our parish — the staff, clergy, faculty, and staff at our school — but most of all to the volunteers who carry out the mission of our church. Not long after I arrived here, we devised an organizational chart for the parish, and I was amazed by how many different groups engage in ministry here; each lending their own talents and passions to en flesh Christ's presence in our world.

Last, I want to thank Bishop Barber for his trust in us. Ministering to this highly educated, critical-thinking community takes a special skill that doesn't always fit the standard format of Catholic catechesis. Our bishop recognizes the uniqueness of this parish and allows us to evangelize in ways our community can understand. We deeply appreciate Bishop Barber presiding at the special Noon Mass this Sunday.

The Catholic Church may be in difficult times at the moment, but I think most of the people who live in North Berkeley recognize Saint Mary Magdalen Parish as a positive force in the neighborhood. We stand for the good works our church has accomplished over the last 100 years, and we will continue to be a positive presence in the future.
